NINETEEN HUNDRED SEVENTY

Louisiana Tech, Ruston, La.

“. . . thy pleasant walks,
thy noble trees . . .

. . . that charmed me in my college days . . .”

Lining up for enrollment packets and photos for ID cards.

As Another School Year Began

Freshman electioneering.

That old familiar scene as registration got underway in the Student Center.

Buying postage for their first letters home causes this "stamp-ede."

Students move into parking spaces provided near the dormitories.

Home Away From Home

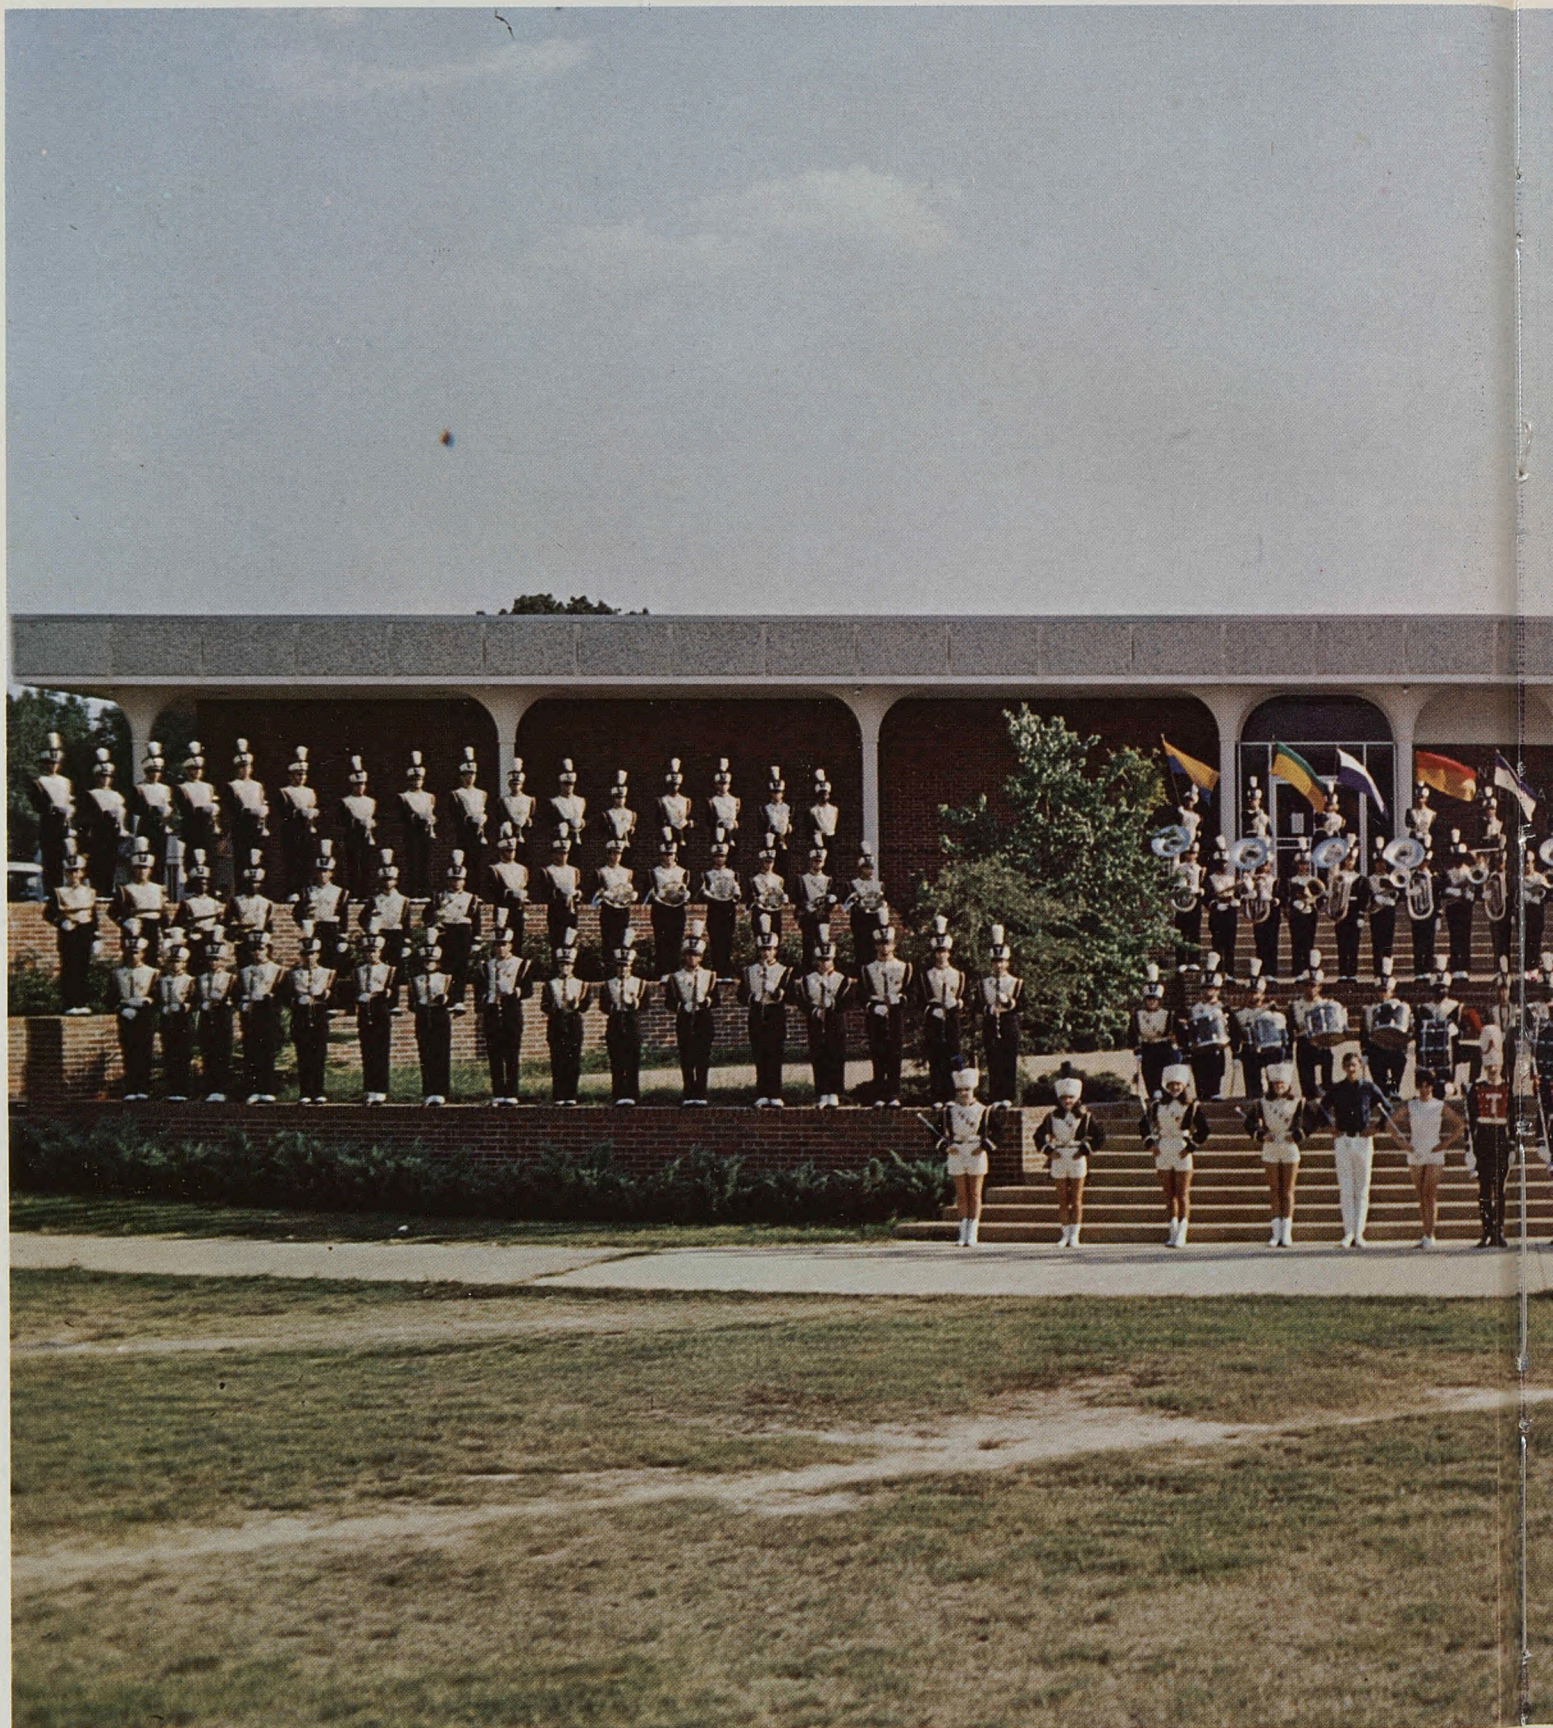

Dormitory rooms are arranged for comfort and convenience of the students.

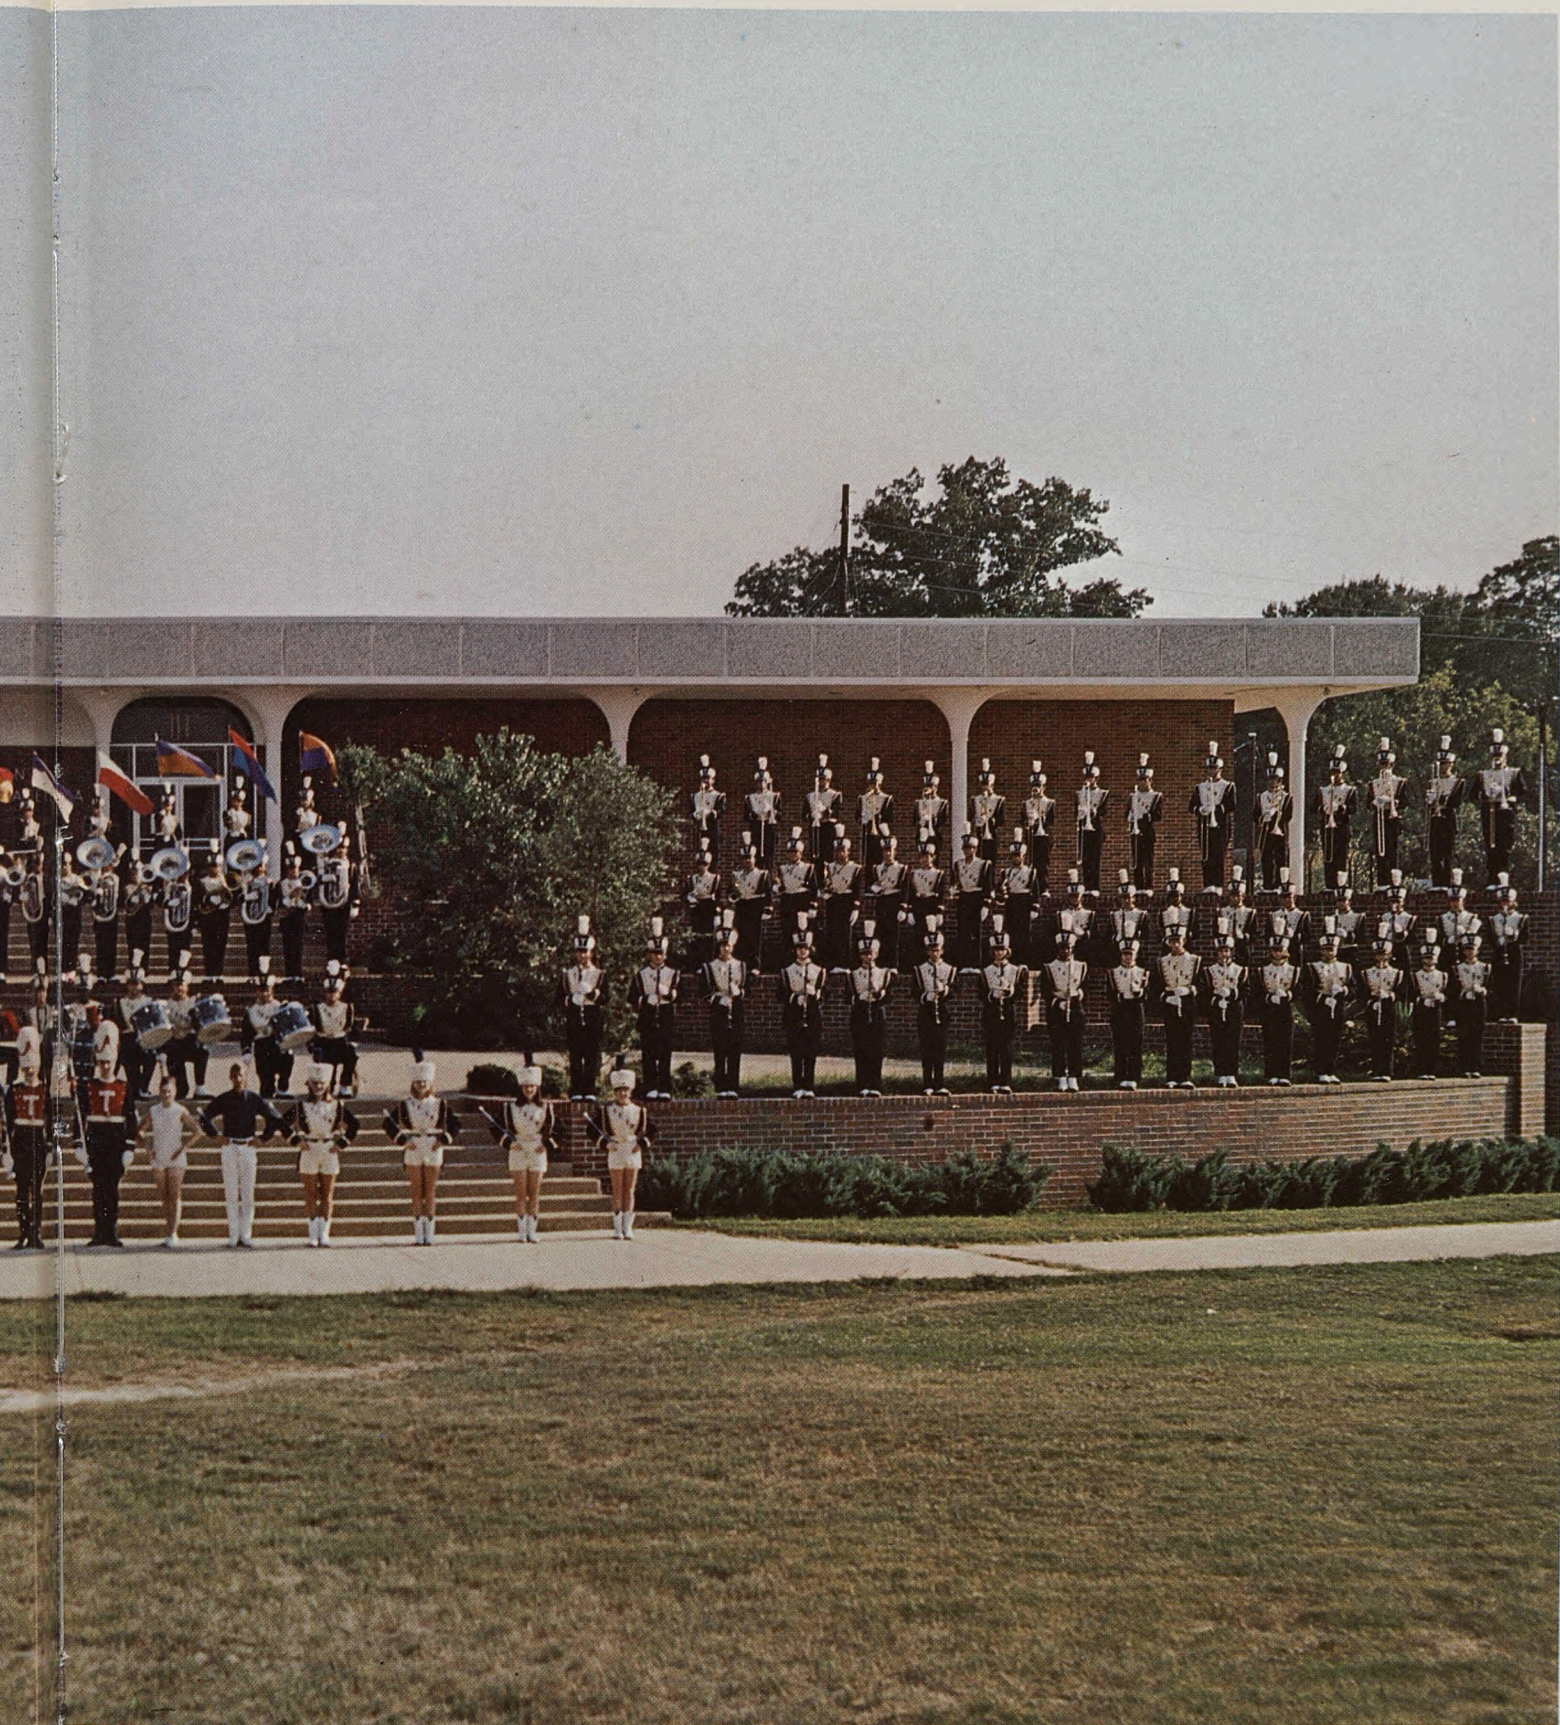

Among the enjoyable musical productions of the fall quarter was the program by the 5th Dimension, presented in Memorial Gymnasium by the Student Union Board. The internationally renowned singers and recording artists were well received by a large audience of students and others. One of the five entertainers was absent because of illness.

“Pride Of The New South”

Louisiana Tech's colorful 152-member marching band presents this impressive pose in front of Wilson Cafeteria. The organization is conducted by Jimmie Howard Reynolds, head of the music department.

James C. Young is assistant conductor of the band; Joseph Christensen, brass instructor; James Goodwin, woodwinds instructor; and J. Phillip Farrar, supervisor of music for the group.

Relaxing on the sunny Riviera between classes.

Louisiana Tech Rome, a new successful educational project initiated in 1969 by the School of Arts and Sciences of Tech, will be resumed this summer. The first of these six-week study sessions attracted 232 students, with a faculty of 10. Courses are taught in art, history, readings and research, home economics and music. Director of the Rome program is Raymond D. Nichols, head of the Tech department of art and architecture.

Students boarding plane in Rome for flight back home.

To obtain employment is the ultimate goal of the students, with assistance of the college placement office being available. Here, a senior in accounting, Randy Peebles (right) of Athens, is being interviewed by Roger Smith of Shreveport, a Tech accounting graduate who is a representative of Peat, Marwick & Mitchell. Presenting the prospective employee is Prof. H. J. Smolinski, head of the Tech accounting department.

Part Of The Main Campus

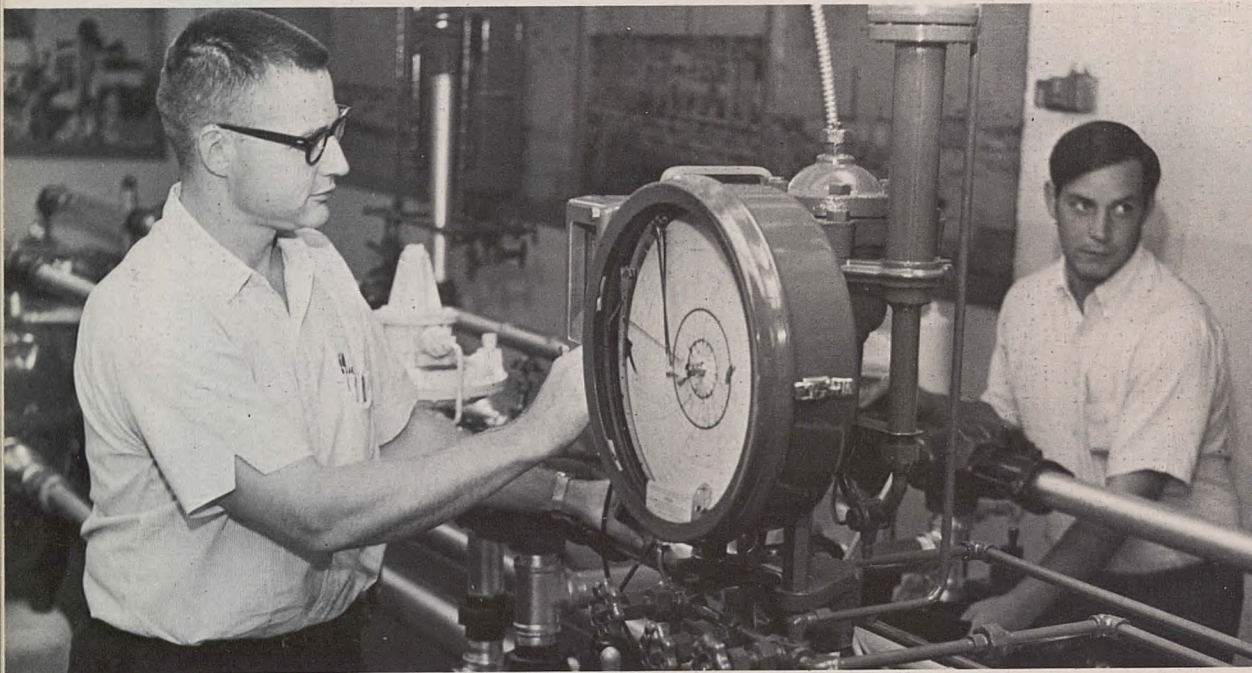

Several of the men's dormitories are located in this area of the grounds.

Electronics rely upon "lab" to familiarize students with transistor circuitry.

This view of a petroleum engineering natural gas laboratory shows some equipment used to prepare an engineering graduate for the petroleum industry.

Civil engineering students making a biological analysis in water pollution studies.

Art students demonstrate their car-decorating ability to compete in a national contest.

Tech's educational tour, alternating annually from East to West, is a popular offering of the School of Arts and Sciences. The 1969 tourists are pictured at the left at the birthplace of Abraham Lincoln in Hodgenville, Ky. The 20th itinerary in August of this year will be conducted through the Midwestern and Northwestern United States into Canada. Both graduate and undergraduate credits are available in this program.

Visual aids are important tools for student home economists.

Students rehearsing for the bi-weekly home economics television show to be presented on Station KNOE-TV in Monroe, La.

Graduate student doing experimental work with cottonseed flour leading to the degree of master of science in home economics.

Education students working with children in the campus reading center.

Partial view of the new multi-purpose education complex used for the first time in the fall.

Students silhouetted at the main entrance of Woodard Hall, education building.

Flower arrangement students in horticulture curriculum.

Quarter horses added to farm.

Meats laboratory in animal husbandry.

Tree-studying exercise by forestry students.

Wildlife students observing deer involved in a nutritional study.

Majorettes

Miss Louisiana Tech is chosen annually by judges at a pageant sponsored in Howard Auditorium by the Student Government Association and the Ruston Junior Chamber of Commerce. Students elect the State Fair court. The homecoming queen and maids are picked by the football squad. The beauty contest is sponsored by the Lagniappe, with students voting. Majorettes are selected by the band director, following tryouts.

In Memoriam

Mr. and Mrs. Hildreth C. Ellis were killed September 7, 1969, in an automobile accident near Van, Texas. He was a graduate student in speech therapy at Tech. His wife, Pat, had been secretary to the Tech comptroller for three years.

Two Buildings Dedicated

Alumni House, located just east of the new athletic complex, was financed by contributions from alumni and other friends of Tech. In front of the alumni building is the Leola Marbury memorial fountain provided by Mr. and Mrs. William Ardis Marbury, Jr., of Ruston. The fountain was presented at homecoming.

U.S. REP. JOE D. WAGGONER, JR.

Homecoming of 1969 was the occasion for the dedication of two buildings. Joe D. Waggoner, Jr., representative from the Fourth Congressional District of Louisiana and a Tech graduate, spoke during ceremonies at the new Alumni House. The dedicatory address at Woodard Hall was given by Dr. George W. Bond, retired, former Tech president and former dean of the School of Education here.

This education building, completed in 1963, was named Woodard Hall in tribute to the memory of Clifford T. Woodard, Dean of the Tech School of Education from 1956 until his death in 1966.

Alpha Chi Omega

Beta Psi chapter of Alpha Chi Omega was installed at Tech in 1941. The flower symbol of Alpha Chi Omega is the red carnation. The colors are scarlet and olive green. The pin is the lyre containing twenty-two pearls. Annual events of the chapter include active and pledge parties, serenading the fraternity houses, Founder's Day, Hera Day, and the winter and spring formals.

Zeta Tau Alpha

Zeta Kappa Chapter was established at Tech in 1966. The colors of the sorority are turquoise blue and steel gray. The flower is the white violet. Honors won by Zeta this year include the scholarship and Most Improved Scholarship Award trophies. The sorority also placed high in the Derby Day events, Greek Week, and WRA.

For service the chapter adopted a Chinese girl. Zetas also visit the old folks home during the holidays. Some of the social activities throughout the year include a tea for the mothers during Mother's Weekend, Halloween party, Christmas and Spring formals. A banquet is held after the initiation of the fall pledges.

 Sweetheart

Gamma Tau Epsilon Order was founded in April of 1967 by three ambitious Tech students. It was established as a local fraternity, as it was in no way connected with any national organization. But the prime goal of its members is to receive a charter from a national fraternity in the near future.

It has been the aim of the fraternity to bring to the Tech campus many new and different activities, such as Derby Day. The future plans of the fraternity contain many more events of this nature along with the Winter and Spring formals, Cowboys and Indians Party, Pig Roast, Derby Day Banquet, and Christmas Party. Gamma Tau Epsilon is definitely a young fraternity on the grow.

Kappa Alpha Order is unique in that it is a Southern fraternity. KA was founded at Washington and Lee University on December 21, 1865. Robert E. Lee was the president of the college and it is the character and qualities of that man that Kappa Alpha Order strives to emulate.

The Southern way of life and traditions are exemplified in the practice of Old South Weekend. The weekend consists of a decorating party, hayride, secession ceremony, parade and delivery of invitations. Festivities are concluded by the Old South Ball.

Kappa Sigma

Kappa Sigma was founded by the "Five Friends and Brothers" on December 10, 1869, at the University of Virginia. The fraternity is represented by the colors scarlet, white and emerald green; and by the flower, the lily of the valley. Epsilon-Gamma chapter at Louisiana Tech is built on "friendship and loyalty having a solid foundation."

Kappa Sigma strives to maintain high standards socially, scholastically, and athletically. Socially, Epsilon-Gamma has the French Party, Black and White Ball, Mardi Gras Party, and the favorite Hawaiian Party every year.

JACKAY LeBLANC
 Sweetheart

On Sunday evening March 1, 1868, a young but wise group of college men gathered in a kerosene-lit dormitory room on the University of Virginia campus. Much as a strong beam of light diffuses from its source to cover a vast area, from this closely knit circle has arisen the national fraternal brotherhood of Pi Kappa Alpha. The six brothers who formed the framework for others to follow now have over 83,000 initiated brothers, who have also believed in the ideals the founders deemed worthy attributes of manhood.

Gamma Psi chapter at Tech stresses leadership, desire and a competitive spirit in the class room, on the athletic field, and in society.

Panhellenic Council

Panhellenic Council, an advisory governing body, is the official spokesman for the six national sororities on the campus.

Membership of the council consists of a senior delegate, a junior delegate and the president of each sorority. A rush chairman serves on the council during formal rush season.

Prior to the beginning of formal rush, the council holds an annual workshop for the purpose of adopting rushing rules and procedures. A Panhellenic convocation is designed to inform new members of the purposes of the council and sororities. A formal tea officially opens the rushing season. Each spring the council directs sorority competition in the Greek Weekend activities. To promote higher scholastic standards, the council offers trophies to sororities with the best scholastic average and the most improved average.

Junior Panhellenic Council

Junior Panhellenic Council consists of the pledge president and one delegate from each sorority pledge class.

The purposes of Junior Panhellenic are to prepare an evaluation of the rushing season in which they have participated and to submit their report to the Senior Council. The Junior Panhellenic Council also serves to orient new pledges to the organization and activities of the Senior Council, thus preparing themselves for future service.

Interfraternity Council

Interfraternity Council coordinates rush and projects by the fraternities. It also acts as the governing body for the Greek-letter fraternity system.

The IFC undertakes many projects each year, foremost among them being the Greek Weekend held each spring. This activity, co-sponsored by the Panhellenic Council, gives each Greek group the chance to compete against others, while at the same time providing an atmosphere of fun and recreation.

The Charity Bowl, another project undertaken by the IFC, is a football game between the fraternity champions and IFC All-Stars.

Associated Women Students

Starting on packets for freshman women before Tech opens in the fall, the AWS Board is busy behind the scenes all year. Composed of elected and appointed officers, dormitory presidents, the presidents of Campus Women's Council and Campus Activities Board, and representatives of the town and drive-in women, the board is the voice of all women students at Tech.

Under the guidance of its sponsor, Mrs. June W. Dyson, the AWS Board initiated a series of sex education programs, sold spirit ribbons, named the Outstanding Freshman and Sophomore Woman, and ended the year with the presentation of the Daisy Chain at the Spring AWS installation ceremony.

Business Students' Association

Mary Mitcham, Queen of Commerce, being crowned by Tommy Bellows, last year's president of the BSA.

The Business Students' Association, organized in 1940, is composed of students in the School of Business Administration. The purposes of the organization are to promote better understanding among the students, faculty and administration of the school; to provide elected representation of the students; to aid the school in obtaining its educational goals; to encourage participation of all students, faculty and administrative members of the school in activities of a school-wide nature, and to assist in increasing favorable recognition of the school and Louisiana Tech.

One of the association's activities is an annual Commerce Day during which an outstanding SBA alumnus is honored at a convocation, the Commerce Queen is crowned, and students and faculty compete in a softball game and later enjoy a barbecue on the campus.

Phi Kappa Phi

Phi Kappa Phi is a national honorary scholastic society that recognizes scholarship in all areas of academic endeavor. The society was founded in 1897, with Tech's chapter having been organized in 1951. Its primary objectives are to emphasize scholarship, leadership and strength of character and to stimulate mental achievement.

Students who are in the final term of their junior year and who rank in the upper five percent of the junior class; students who rank in the upper ten percent of the senior class, and graduate students who are completing their degree requirements and have the required average may be elected to membership. Election is considered generally as being as high an academic honor as can come to a student.

Tech Karate Club

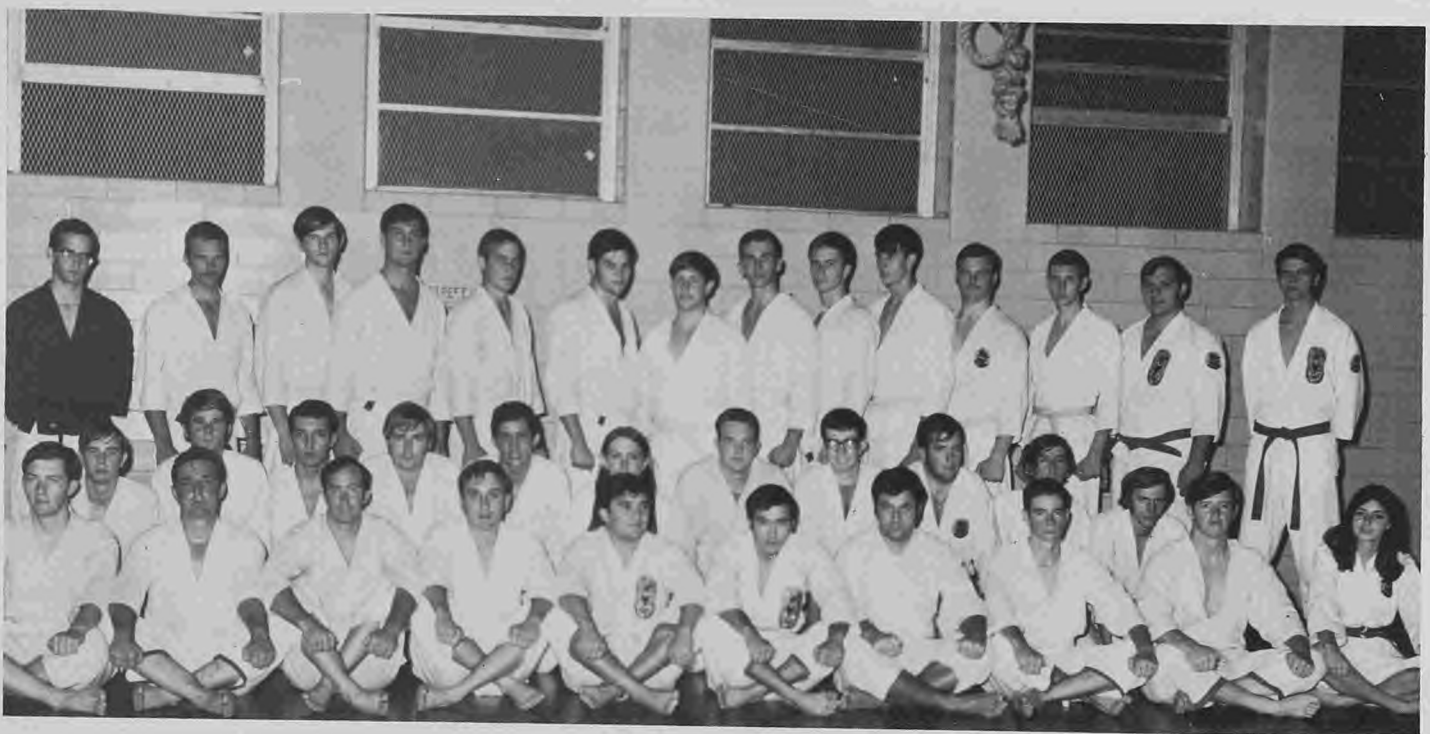

Karate means "empty hand." It is an art of defense which utilizes the principle of focusing the hands, feet and other weapons of the body at vital points of an adversary's body.

Because of the high development of the mind and body, a Karateist can be adequately armed at all times with only his alertness, abilities and knowledge. Basically, the art is an intense refinement and improvement of communication between mind and body, aiming for quiet security and invulnerability. Karate exercises are uniquely designed to develop and maintain physical fitness.

The Isshinryu Karate Club of Louisiana Tech was formed in the fall of 1967. The purpose of the club is to provide those students interested in the martial arts the opportunity to study the art of Karate, develop mind and body coordination and learn self-defense techniques.

Club members have represented Louisiana Tech in many state, regional and nationwide tournaments, including the 1969 United States Karate Association championships in Miami, the 1970 United States Karate championships in Dallas and the 1970 All-American Open Karate championships in New York City.

Alpha Eta Rho

Alpha Eta Rho, international aviation fraternity, was founded in 1929 on the campus of the University of Southern California and has since grown in size and stature within the colleges and aviation community, with chapters at more than 20 colleges both in the United States and in several foreign countries.

The Lambda Tau chapter of Alpha Eta Rho was organized this year on the Tech campus to further the pro-standards that are necessary in aviation today. With the growth of the aviation program at Tech, it was necessary to have an organization which would give students enrolled in the Professional Aviation Program active participation in helping the program grow and improve its standards.

Tau Beta Pi

Tau Beta Pi is a national engineering honor society founded in 1885 at Lehigh University. Its objectives are "to mark in a fitting manner those who have conferred honor upon their Alma Mater by distinguished scholarship and exemplary character as undergraduates in engineering, and to foster a spirit of liberal culture in engineering colleges." Candidates for admission are selected on the basis of their scholastic achievements and extracurricular activities.

Pi Tau Sigma

Pi Tau Sigma, a national honorary mechanical engineering fraternity, was founded at the University of Illinois in 1915. The Louisiana Tech Tau Xi chapter was installed on April 23, 1957.

Active members are chosen on the bases of sound engineering ability, scholarship and personality. They are selected from the top 35 percent of the junior and senior classes.

The purpose of Pi Tau Sigma is to establish a closer bond of fellowship which will result in mutual benefit to the men in the study and the profession of mechanical engineering, who by their academic or practical achievements manifest a real interest and marked ability in their chosen work.

Society of Petroleum Engineers

The Louisiana Tech student chapter of the Society of Petroleum Engineers of the American Institute of Mining, Metallurgical and Petroleum Engineers was established in 1955. Purposes of this society are to promote among the members a self-sought increasing knowledge of petroleum engineering in all its branches and to instill a professional pride in their chosen life work.

The society participates in Engineers' Weekend, sponsors field trips and banquets for its members, and is host to a joint annual meeting with the Lou-Ark section of the Society of Petroleum Engineers of AIME and the South Arkansas Chapter of the API.

Baptist Student Union

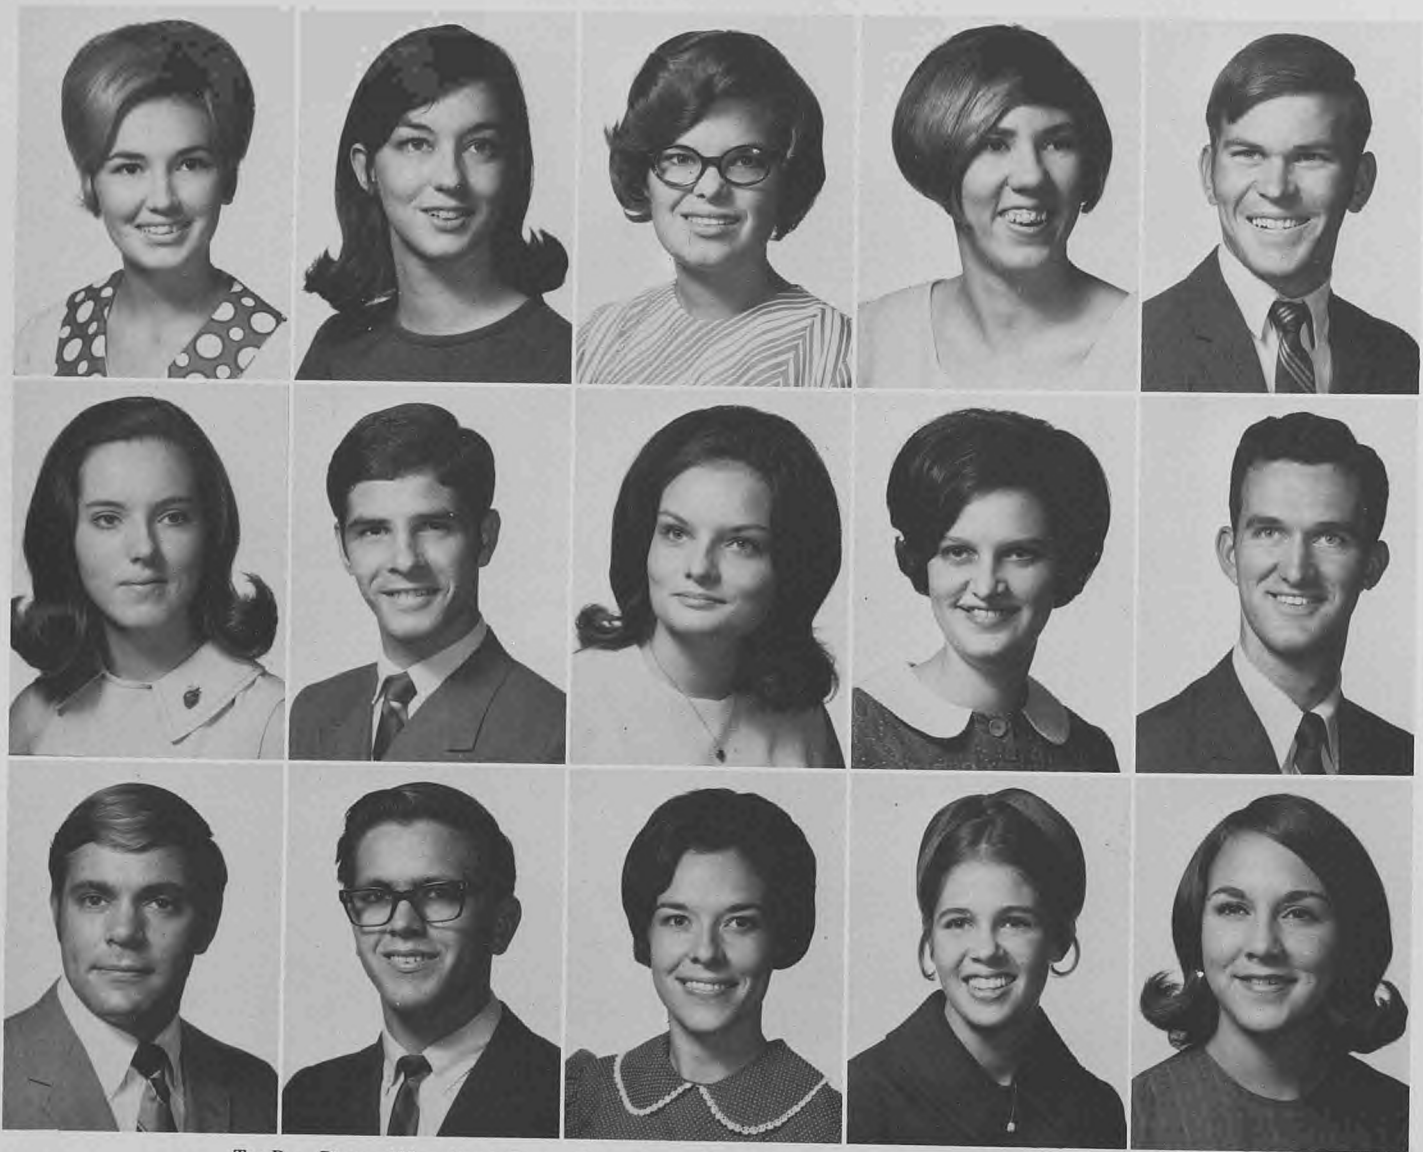

The basic objective of the Baptist Student Union is to lead each person of the academic community into a maturing Christian experience. To achieve this objective, the Tech BSU helps to develop a concern for evangelism and missions, to build a stronger personal spiritual life, to train the members of the collegiate community for Christian leadership, and to provide opportunities for Christian fellowship and recreation.

Among the many activities designed to accomplish this objective are a pre-school retreat, daily chapel services, Bible study, lecture series, Young Women's Auxiliary, Christian student leadership week and recreational activities, including parties and banquets.

Tech BSU participates in statewide activities including a fall convention, a spring assembly and several choir tours. George Haile, a former Tech student, serves as full-time director of the BSU.

This past year BSU was campus champion, both men and women, in intramural athletics.

Student Government Association

Under the leadership of Craig Henry, president, the Student Government Association continued its wide program of activities, keeping in mind the interests of the entire student body and striving for close communication among the students and faculty.

The Accent speakers' program, which began in 1967, continued to be outstanding and received editorial commendation from some of the newspapers of the state. This brought to the campus early in the year such outstanding men as U. S. Senator Allen J. Ellender of Louisiana; Dr. Benjamin Spock, noted child psychologist and author, and U. S. Senator Strom Thurmond of South Carolina. Others scheduled for later in the year were Dean Rusk, former secretary of state and now a law professor at the University of Georgia, and Dr. Wilmot Hess, director of Earth Sciences Associates in Colorado and a former director of the Apollo 11 mission.

A drug seminar also was scheduled, with speakers including Dr. Thomas Ungerleider of the University of California at Los Angeles; Dr. Lewis Yablonsky, chairman of the sociology department at Valley State College in California, and Dr. Joel Fort, director of the center of alcoholism, Alameda, California.

Among the other accomplishments of the SGA this school year was the obtaining of agreement from several Ruston merchants to give discounts to Tech students making purchases.

The SGA arranges for the election of the State Fair court, class officers and cheerleaders. The student loan fund and the student insurance program also are in charge of the SGA.

Union Board

The Louisiana Tech Union Board is a campus organization that provides varied entertainment for the interests of the students. This past year's entertainment ranged from the fabulous Fifth Dimension to various artists such as Martin and Sally in the Bamboo Curtain. Other greats provided at Tech were Kenny Rogers and the First Edition, the Grass Roots, Oliver, and dance bands such as Bill Wray and His Showband Royale, the Short-kuts, the Gripping Force and one of Tech's own musical aggregations, the Tech Collegians.

The Union Board encompasses all entertainment for students from the Student Center to the Bamboo Curtain Coffee House. The organization is composed of 40 members coming from fraternities and sororities and independent members of the student body. These members are constantly on the go because of the many functions of the board. Concerts and dances are only small parts of the work of the board. It sponsors the Miss Louisiana Tech pageant, the Freshman Honors Banquet, Campus Carnival and certain homecoming events. Movies provided by the Union Board included "Cat Ballou," "Casino Royale," "Rosemary's Baby," "Where Eagles Dare," and others.

Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges

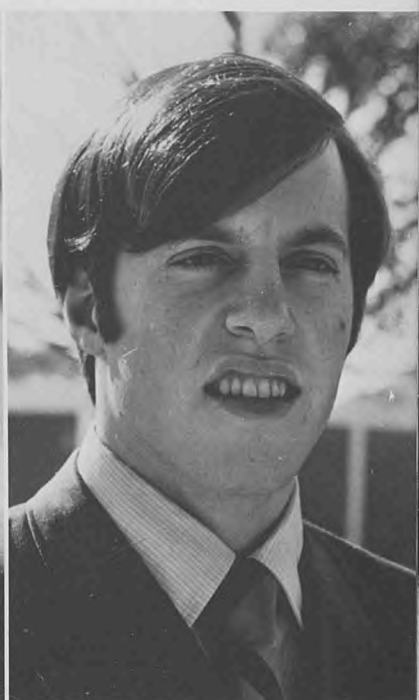

Thirty-seven Louisiana Tech students were named to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges for 1969-70. Campus organizations nominated these outstanding men and women students. Criteria for selection by the student-faculty committee included a wide variety of pursuits, including scholarship, character, leadership, extra-curricular activities, work on publications and participation in sororities, fraternities and other organizations.

TEAM WORK

It ain't guns nor armament,
 Nor funds that they can pay,
 But the close cooperation
 That makes them win the day.

It ain't the individuals,
 Nor the army as a whole,
 But the everlastin' team work
 Of every bloomin' soul.

FOUR ALL-AMERICAN CHOICES

Terry Bradshaw, Louisiana Tech star quarterback shown here in two photos, was named All-American four times for his performances in the 1969 season. He was selected by the Associated Press, Sporting News, Kodak, and Time Magazine. Bradshaw was chosen as the game's outstanding player and the South's most valuable back in the Senior bowl game at Mobile, Ala. The score was a 37-37 tie. Bradshaw was drafted as No. 1 by the Pittsburgh Steelers.

GULF STATES HONOREES

Maxie Lambright was named "Coach of the Year" in the Gulf States Conference by the Louisiana Sports Writers Association. The writers also selected 12 members of the Tech football team for All-GSC. They were Tommy Spinks, Larry Brewer, Butch Williams, Terry Bradshaw, Mark Graham; honorable mention, Rudell Vaughan, John Harper, Buster Herren, David Wilkins, John Richard, Ronnie Alexander and Andy Calais.

Tech 24, E. Carolina 6

Louisiana Tech started a string of victories in their season opener at Greenville, N. C., by trimming East Carolina, 24-6, on September 27.

Terry Bradshaw capitalized on a blocked field goal try to score Tech's first touchdown in the first quarter on a pass to Robbie Albright with a 71-yard play. Jorgen Gertz made his first of three conversions of the night to put the Bulldogs ahead 7-0.

In the second quarter, Ronnie Wiggins pounced upon an EC miscue and Tech made the tally 10-0 when Gertz booted a 28-yard field goal.

Bradshaw tossed to Tommy Spinks for a scoring play to put Tech ahead 17-6 as the third quarter ended.

Butch Herren caught a Bradshaw pass in the last period for an eight-yard jaunt to give the Bulldogs the 24-6 victory.

Tech 35, McNeese 18

Scoring two touchdowns in the second quarter, one in the third and two in the fourth, Tech trounced the McNeese Cowboys, 35-18, in Lake Charles on October 4.

McNeese counted first — on a 26-yard sprint by Ricky Miller — but the Bulldogs retaliated on a jaunt by Bubba Sanchez. The Cowpokes chalked up a field goal by Wayne LaGrippe and an end sweep by Larry Brewer gave Tech a 14-9 lead at the half.

LaGrippe of McNeese again booted a field goal and Tech's Buster Herren scored on a draw play from nine yards out to place the Techmen ahead, 21-12. Tech's only touchdown by air came when Terry Bradshaw fired a 16-yard toss to Tommy Spinks.

Andy Calais intercepted a Miller throw and returned it 54 yards for Tech's final marker. McNeese wound up scoring on a pass from Greg Davis to Larry Watley.

Tech 34, Southwestern 21

Terry Bradshaw, one of the country's premier passers, turned runner in crucial moments to lead the Techsters to a 34-21 triumph over the University of Southwestern at Ruston on October 11 in the Bulldogs' first home contest of the season.

Bradshaw scored twice in leading his teammates to a 28-7 halftime count. In the third quarter, he went over for his third running score of the night.

Southwestern took a deflected pass at the Tech 25 and went over for a touchdown in the second quarter. The visitors were held scoreless in the third quarter, as well as in the first period, but they came through with two touchdowns in the final period to account for their 21 points.

Bradshaw's only scoring pass of the first half resulted when he pitched to Brewer, who was open in the end zone.

Tech 55, Chattanooga 7

University of Chattanooga's Moccasins suffered their worst defeat in their history when the Tech Bulldogs trounced them 55-7 at Chattanooga on October 25.

The game lasted four hours, including a one and one-half hour delay caused by an electrical blackout.

The Techsters, following the leadership of Terry Bradshaw, who passed for three touchdowns and scored two counters by land, piled up a margin of 28-0 in the first quarter. Bradshaw played about 16 minutes in all — the first quarter and one play in the third frame.

Chattanooga got its only touchdown on a 75-yard hook-up from Richard Manning, quarterback, to Robert Smith, tailback, in the second quarter.

Besides two touchdowns by Bradshaw and two by Robbie Albright, 6-point markers were rung up by Spinks, Ken Lantrip, Green and Adams. Gertz kicked seven out of eight extra pointers.

U.S.M. 24, Tech 23

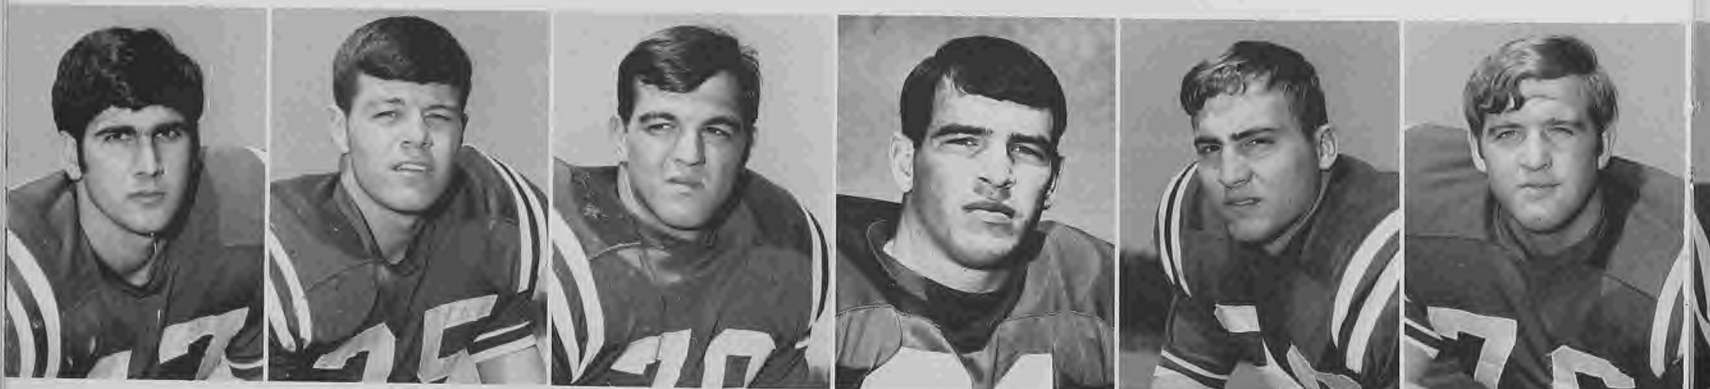

There was no joy in Mudville that day when Mighty Casey struck out; and some of the same gloom pervaded the Tech stadium after Southern Mississippi's John Hale kicked a 36-yard field goal with 26 seconds left to give the visitors an edge of 24-23 at homecoming here on November 1.

The Bulldogs had taken a 23-21 lead as Gertz marked up a field goal with about 13 minutes remaining in the fracas. Gertz had the misfortune of failing in one extra-point try, following a touchdown by Buster Herren. The latter also scored on a running play. The third touchdown was made by Bradshaw, early in the match.

Undaunted by this shading by the Southerners, Tech finished the rest of the regular season undefeated.

Tech 42, Northwestern 21

Louisiana Tech's Bulldogs administered a 42-21 shellacking to the Northwestern State College Demons at the State Fair stadium in Shreveport on October 18 before an estimated 31,000 fans.

This annual classic, always a big deal for both sides of the battle field, was the 54th meeting of the two clubs. The victory was Tech's 35th of the series, with Northwestern winning 15. Four of the encounters ended in ties. The accomplishment of 1969 gave the Bulldogs a 4-0 record for the year and extended their winning skein to 12 contests. The streak started in the 1968 season, when Tech defeated the Demons in the waning seconds, 42-39.

Terry Bradshaw had his usual good evening, hitting on 13 of 23 passes. He also scored a touchdown on a running play.

Tommy Spinks emerged as the leading receiver, snagging four for 128 yards, and making one touchdown. Buster Herren gathered in four passes also but was more impressive by rushing in three touchdown maneuvers.

Ronnie Wiggins, Tech cornerback, retrieved a fumble in the air and raced in from 16 yards out for one of the markers, Tech's sixth against NSC.

Kicker Jorgen Gertz scored 100 per cent with his boots, following up the six touchdowns each time for one-point additions.

At halftime, the Bulldogs led 21-7, with the other 21 points destined for Tech in the second section. The Demons picked up 14 more points in the second half, to explain their total of 21.

Tech 25, Southeastern 24

Playing at Hammond on November 8, the Canines clipped the Southeastern Lions 25-24, in a last-quarter rally.

The Lions opened the scoring with a 14-0 advantage in the first period. Tech later in the opening stanza put together a drive, with Bradshaw scoring on a three-yard roll out. The placement by Gertz made it 14-7.

With Spinks and Bradshaw scoring in the second quarter, without extra points figuring, the Bulldogs carried a 19-17 lead into the dressing room at the half, with the Lions picking up a field goal in the second quarter.

Neither team scored in the third quarter but the Lions forged ahead in the fourth when Darrel Beard scored from one yard out and Roy Hurd's kick put Southeastern ahead, 24-19.

Following a goal-line stand with only seven minutes left in the last quarter, Tech was forced to punt and the Lions began setting up a field goal attempt by Hurd when David Wilkins of Tech pounced on a loose ball to give the Bulldogs the chance for the winning score. Quick Bradshaw tosses to Spinks, Brewer and Albright, coupled with a 15-yard penalty against the Lions put Tech on the one-yard line, from which Bradshaw scored. A two-point conversion try failed when Bradshaw was shoved out of bounds, but Tech then was ahead 25-24.

SLC got the ball back twice but key interceptions by Ricky Taylor and Ronnie Wiggins preserved the victory for Tech.

La Tech 77, Lamar Tech 40

Tech's Bulldogs, piling up 77 points to Lamar Tech's 40 at Ruston on November 15, scored the most points in a football game since 1922, when a Bulldog aggregation smothered Clarke Memorial College, 100-0.

Features of the Tech-Lamar game included four Touch-downs by Buster Herren, an 88-yard punt return by Ronnie Albright and a 59-yard punt return by John Adams, which added to the long list of TD's.

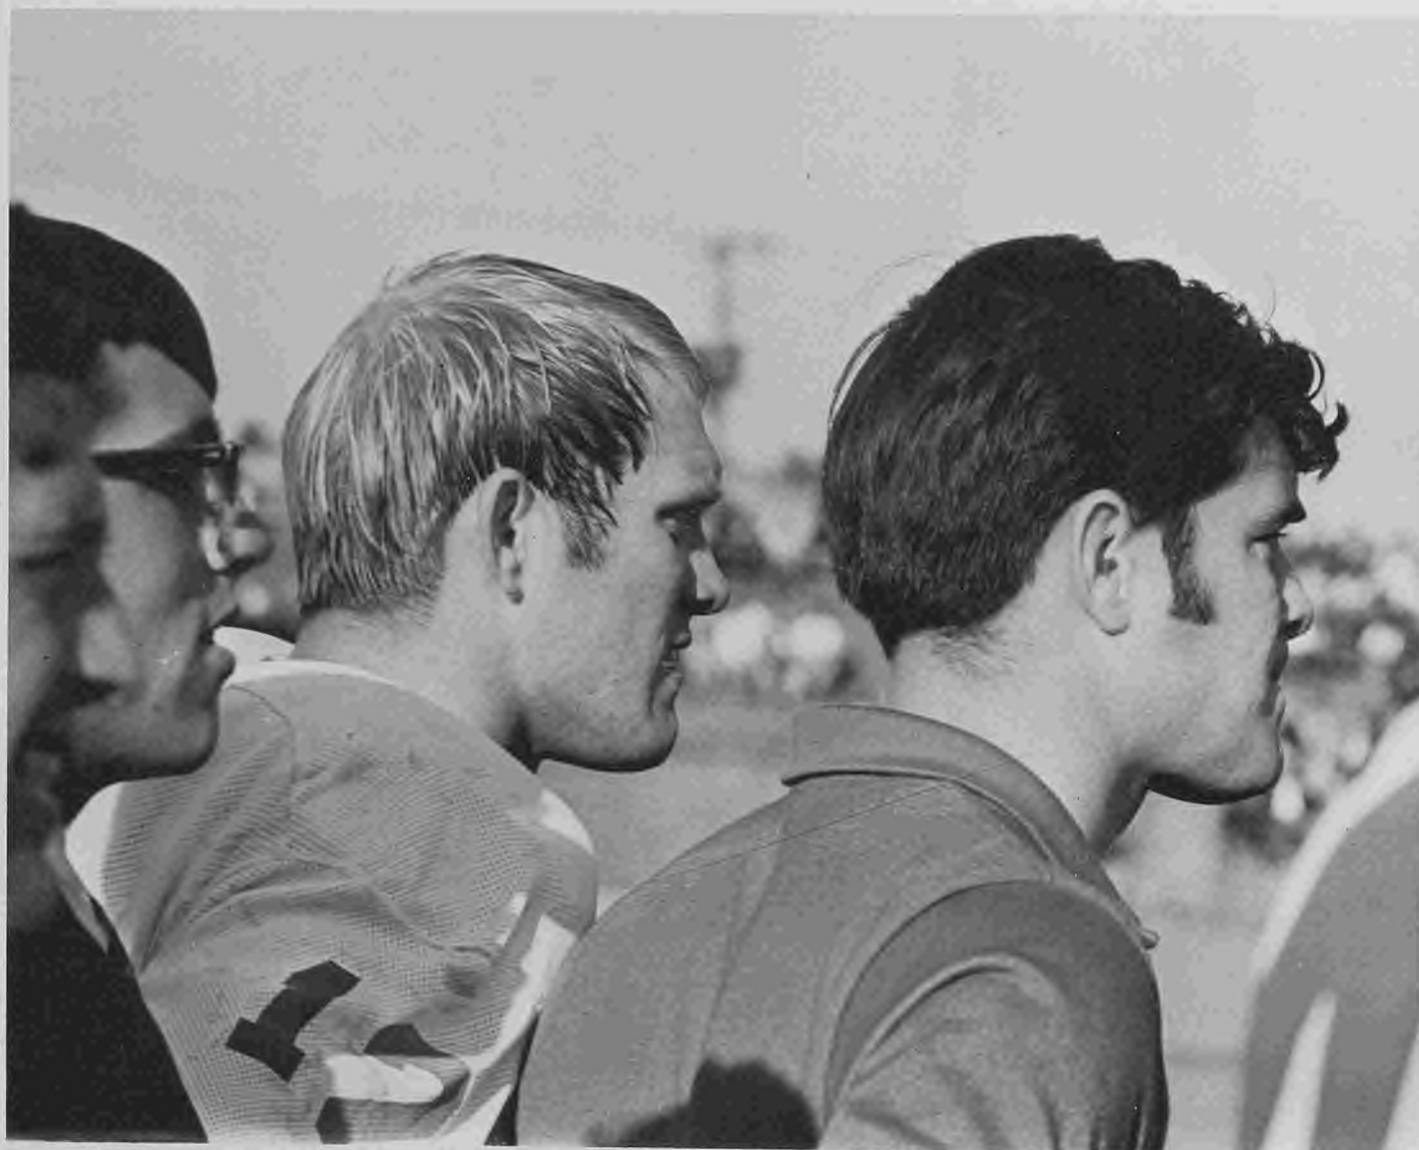

Robbie Albright set the pace for the evening early in the first quarter when he fielded a punt on his 12 and scampered the 88 yards for a counter.

Lamar Tech came back with two quick scores on passes to take a 13-7 lead. Presently, however, David Brookings of Louisiana Tech returned an interception 18 yards for a touch-down for a tally of 14-13 and Tech stayed in front from then on.

Herren, in donating his four touchdowns, had two runs of two yards each and another of one yard, in addition to a 19-yard pass reception from Bradshaw.

Completing the 11 touchdowns of the game were Mike Lord, Ken Lantrip, Bradshaw and Tommy Spinks.

Jorgen Gertz kicked 11 extra points to increase the 66 touchdown markers to a total of 77 for the Bulldogs.

Tech 34, Northeast 6

By defeating the Northeast State College Indians, 34-6, in their last regular-season game of the season on November 22 at Ruston, the Tech Bulldogs climaxed one of their most successful years and copped the Gulf States Conference title fair and square, clear and undivided.

Terry Bradshaw, ending a distinguished collegiate schedule, scarred Northeast with 17 pass connection for 315 yards by air and two touchdowns. He sent a long bomb to Robbie Albright for Tech's first tally.

Buster Herren, also winding up his college year, drove over from the 10 for one of the markers. He later scored two other touchdowns.

Tommy Spinks, Larry Brewer and John Adams also were prominent standouts in the last Ruston engagement of the season.

Actually, the general trend was pretty well established before intermission, when the Techsters were on top by a score of 21-0.

Grantland Rice Bowl

East Tennessee State 34, Tech 14

East Tennessee State, champion of the Ohio Valley Conference, upset the dopebucket in amazing style by defeating Louisiana Tech, 34-14, in the sixth year of the Grantland Rice Bowl football game played in Baton Rouge on December 13.

The gridders from Johnson City, Tenn., threw most of what they had at the Bulldogs, running up a 13-0 margin at half-time.

The ETSU Pirates began scoring in the opening quarter, after recovering a Tech fumble on the Bulldogs' 17. Five downs later, Daughtry crossed over the goal line from six inches away, the score (6-0) remaining that way through the initial stanza. In the second quarter, after a Bradshaw pass was intercepted by ETSU's Linebarger, the Pirates' Graham put the Tennessee boys back on the board when Hauser plunged over on a pass reception from Tech's 15. Harrold booted the extra point, giving ETSU the 13-0 result at intermission.

Tech picked up six points in the third stanza, when Buster Herren snared an eight-yard toss from Bradshaw and sped into pay dirt unmolested. Gertz added the fringe benefit in his customary soccer manner. The Pirates soon tallied again as Young scored on a five-yard dash and Harrold's one-point kick brought the total to 20-7. Tech soon followed with a counter coming from a 15-yard pass from Bradshaw to Spinks. The extra by Gertz cut the difference to 20-14. That was all they wrote about Tech's scoring in the bowl engagement.

The Bucs pushed the score to 27-14 on a touchdown pitch of 39 yards from Graham to Gibson, plus Harrold's conversion. Later in the final quarter, Graham hurled a 10-yard pass to Rick Anderson, who was all alone in the end zone. Harrold again split the uprights for the 34-14 victory.

Buster Herren (31) meets an obstacle in Rice Bowl, with Darrell Manceaux (51) coming up.

Baseball

Personal achievements by second baseman Glenn Theis and first sacker Dean Dick highlighted an experience-filled baseball season for Louisiana Tech in 1969.

With Theis and outfielder J. B. Martin as the only seniors, the second Tech team coached by Pat Patterson finished just below the .500 level, winning 17 and losing 20. Nine of the defeats came by one run, four more by two tallies, and the lack of veterans was one cause of those losses. But the Bulldogs came on strong at the end, winning seven of their last 10 conference contests.

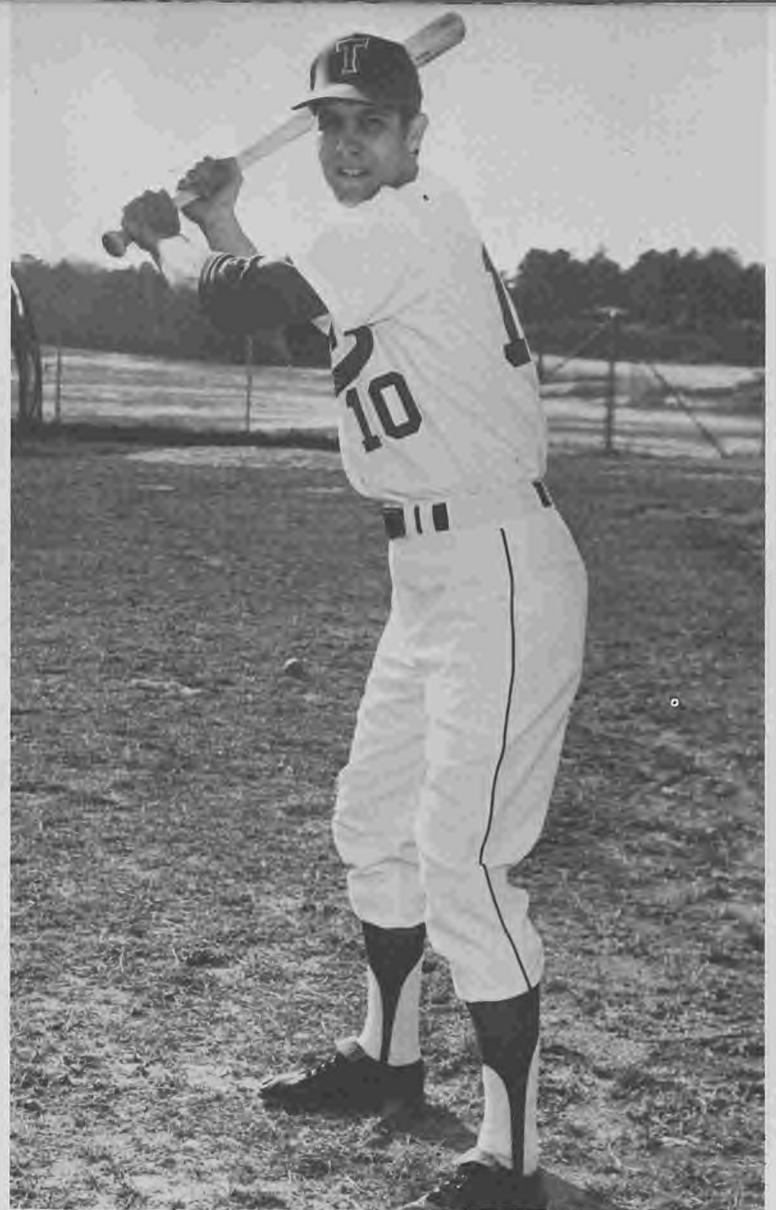

Theis, bidding to make the All-GSC team for the second straight year, was easily the club's top hitter. He wound up with a .333 overall average on 36 hits in 108 times at bat. He did even better in league tilts, ending with a phenomenal .408, best in the circuit.

Dick, alternating between first base and outfield, broke school and GSC single season records with 19 stolen bases and a Tech mark with 27 walks for the spring of 1969. He also led the team in runs scored, his total being 23.

Tech Wins GSC Championship

Putting the finishing touches on a Cinderella season in 1969, Louisiana Tech won its first Gulf State Conference golf title in five years.

Not only did the Techmen come back in the GSC tournament itself but they also erased the memory of having been beaten by every league opponent at least once during the regular season, in either a dual match or in tourney play.

Trailing the defending GSC champion Northeast State by 13 strokes with 18 holes to play in the 54-hole meet at the Ruston Golf Club, the Tech swingers battled back to win by one shot.

To make the storybook ending more complete, the title was clinched by the team's senior captain, Rick Hollan, on the last shot of his college golf career.

The playing of three Tech juniors — Frank Brame, Lee Matthews and Geoff Kimbrough — had put Tech in contention in the final nine holes. But when the drama unfolded, it remained for Hollan to make the pressure shots. He did just that, picking up three shots on his Northeast foe in the last three holes, including the biggest one on the 54th and final hole, which was a four-foot birdie putt that sewed up the title.

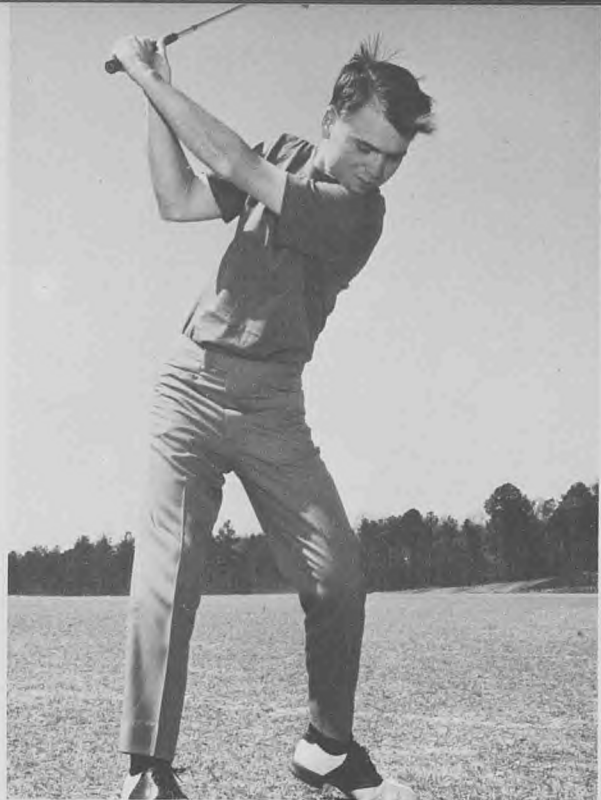

Team balance was a key factor in the victory. Hollan made the All-GSC team with his fourth-place 217. Balance also showed up in the final season averages in which the squad members finished a little more than one stroke within each other.

Tennis

Steve Thurber and Bill Keith, Louisiana Tech's senior tennis twosome, found the right way to end their college days in 1969.

Bouncing back from three straight losses in No. 1 doubles, they won their second Gulf States Conference title in three years at the league tournament in Monroe.

They did it the hard way, knocking off top-seeded defending champions Upton Giles and Irvin David of the University of Southwestern Louisiana in the semifinals and second-seeded Carlos Medrano and Randy Chamberlain of McNeese in the finals.

It was a good windup of a brilliant four-year career in which they combined to win 43 of 56 matches in No. 1 doubles.

The victory also blotted out some of the sting of the 1968 failure when Giles and David took away the No. 1 doubles crown, which Thurber and Keith had originally won in 1967. The three triumphs in the conference play gave the Shreveport pair a final record of 10-4 for the spring of 1969.

Thurber, playing No. 1 singles last year after three campaigns at No. 2, had a record of 8-5 and wound up his playing with a 36-17 mark.

Keith was 7-6 last spring at No. 2 singles. Junior Tommy Green, the No. 3 singles player, had a 6-6 record and carried a career score of 28-13 into his final year.

Chang-Ho Choi, a Korean native, played No. 4 and had a 5-7 record. No. 5 man was Ross Tamblingson, who went 4-7. Green and Choi were 3-5 in the No. 2 doubles.

The Techmen finished fourth in the GSC and had a 3-6 record, although two of the losses were by forfeit.

Track And Field

For Louisiana Tech's track and field team of 1969 the Gulf States Conference meet was a satisfying but frustrating experience. Going without the services of ace sprinter Don King, the Bulldogs scored 56 and three-fourths points and finished third, one quarter of a point behind the University of Southwestern Louisiana.

Considering King's absence, it was a superb effort, especially by the field crew which produced 27 and three-fourths points. It was frustrating because King had been the pre-meet leader in the 100-yard dash and second in the 220. He also anchored the 440-yard relay. Without him, Tech was left blank in the sprints and finished fourth in the relay. The loss of those points may have cost the team a chance to overtake champion Northeast State College. King pulled a groin muscle a week prior to the conference meet.

Ken Rorie, a double winner for Tech in the GSC hurdles, emerged as the Bulldogs' leading scorer, an honor which escaped him by a half point in 1968. Using his victories in the 120-yard high hurdles and 440-yard intermediate hurdles, he ended the '69 season with 82 points and a team high of 12 individual wins. Bill Ebarb, jumper, was second in the point race with 73½, and Don King, sprinter, was third with 69 and one-fourth points. Dale Williams, pole vaulter, Tech's only other point winner in the GSC meet, ranked fourth with 51 points.
